Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On April 2, 2025, President Donald J. Trump announced a plan that would implement a broad range of tariffs on goods imported into the United States. Axogen, Inc. (the "Company") anticipates minimal impact from these tariffs, as well as from any retaliatory actions taken by other countries, on its current financials and underlying business model. The vast majority of the Company's sales are domestic, as is the manufacturing of its products. The costs associated with imported materials needed for its operations is minimal.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements about the Company's future expectations, plans and prospects that constitute forward-looking statements for purposes of the safe harbor provisions under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current expectations, estimates and projections about our industry, business and future events. These statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding the Company's expectations regarding the potential impact of tariffs announced by President Donald J. Trump on April 2, 2025 and any potential retaliatory actions taken by other countries, on the Company's current financials and underlying business model. These forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks, uncertainties and assumptions including without limitation: (i) the final scope and implementation of the announced tariffs; (ii) the potential for changes in international trade policy beyond those currently announced; (iii) unforeseen disruptions to the Company's domestic supply chain or manufacturing processes; (iv) changes in global economic conditions that could indirectly impact the Company's business; and (v) other risks and uncertainties described in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including its most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K.

Actual results could differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including those set forth above. The Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this communication or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events, except as required by law. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date hereof.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
